A long time ago there was a King called Darius who ruled the great kingdom of Babylon with his advisors. Daniel was one of the advisors. He wasn't from the kingdom of Babylon like the others, he was from the small city of Jerusalem.

part of the story

The King could rely on Daniel because he did what was right and trusted in God. Daniel quickly became the King's favourite advisor. Many people in the kingdom knew that three times a day Daniel would kneel by his window and pray to God.

The other advisors were very jealous of Daniel so they convinced the King to sign a new law that said "Nobody is allowed to pray to anybody but King Darius for 30 days. If you do, then you will be thrown into the den of lions."

Praying to God was more important to Daniel than any punishment, so he continued to pray by his window three times a day.

The other advisors were spying on Daniel and when they saw him praying, they went to the King to tell him the news. The King was sad and realised that he had been tricked into signing the law. He had no choice but to throw Daniel into the lions' den.

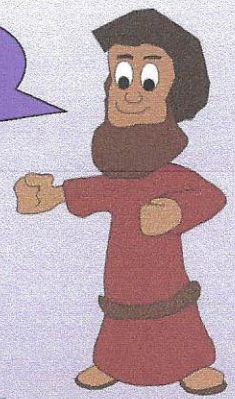

Help the advisors find Daniel

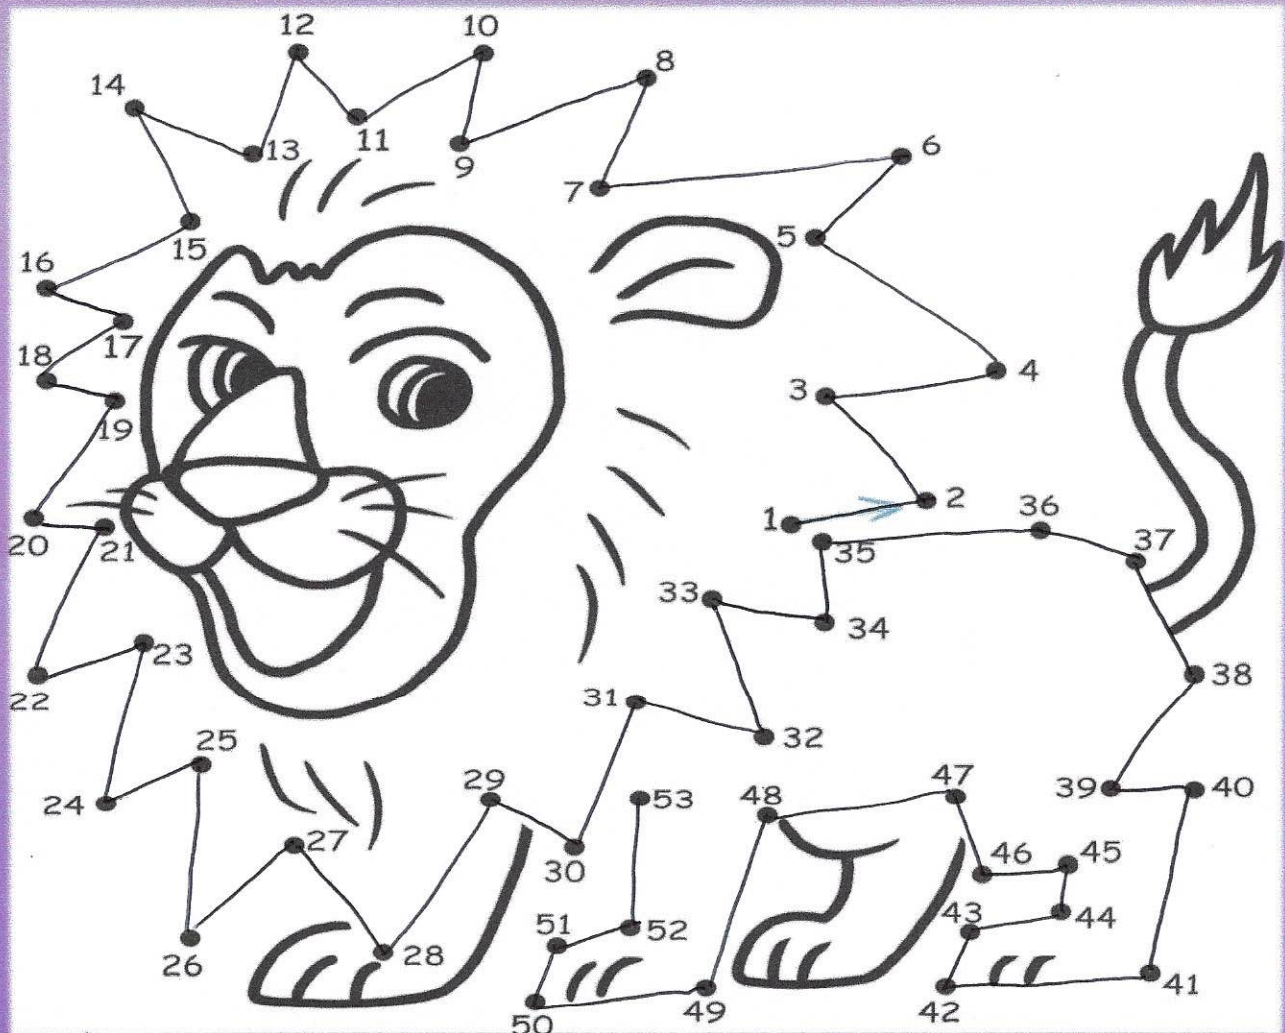

Daniel was thrown into a den where there were lots of hungry, roaring lions. A giant rock was rolled over the entrance so Daniel could not escape. You would expect Daniel to be terrified of being eaten...

...but Daniel knew God would look after him.

Complete the dot to dot

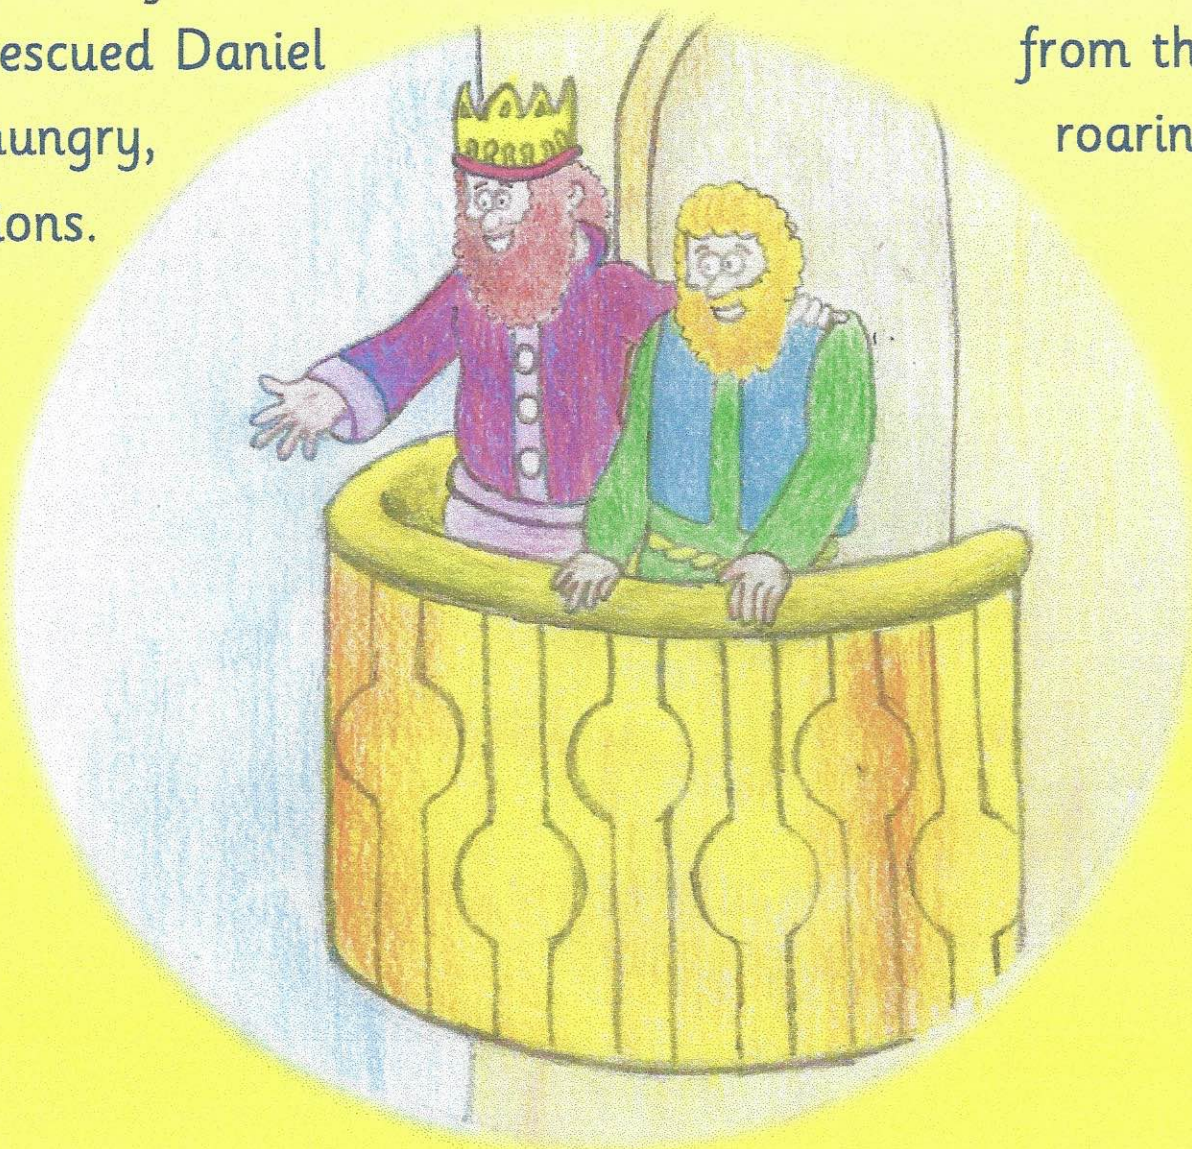

That night the King couldn't sleep. As soon as morning came he rushed to the entrance of the den and asked his soldiers to take the rock away. The worried King shouted, "DANIEL! Has God saved you from the lions?" Daniel replied, "My God has sent an angel who has shut the lions' mouths, so that they could not hurt me because I have done nothing wrong."

The King was so happy and asked for Daniel to be taken out of the den. They could not find any marks or bruises on him. Now the King demanded that the advisors be thrown into the lions' den. King Darius wrote to all of his kingdom and made a new law to say that his people should worship the God of Daniel for He is the one true God. It was God who rescued Daniel from the hungry, lions.

The story of Daniel comes from the Bible. The Bible tells of us of many other people who trusted in God. The Bible says that without faith (trust) it is impossible to please God. Today, children and grown ups who put their trust in Jesus Christ can know their sins forgiven and receive the gift of God which is eternal life.

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

But now Christ is risen from the dead.

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved.

Romans 3v23 - Romans 5v8 - 1 Corinthians 15v20 - Acts 16v31

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life
